STAY HARD CORE

TEEN

chaos existed before anything else. a formless space containing the seeds of creation. from chaos came the universe. it is the beauty and foundation to our whole creative realm. us humans as part of creation have ignorantly navigated all life into more and more pain and cruelty in ~~the~~ ~~state~~ laughable attempts to force order. everything gets worse and worse. my diaphragm tenses up. i feel responsible but i can't control it. guilt. fear. apocalyptic visions of a future i don't know i have. a mere fantasy... a blackout. nothing.
 Why not just let go of control? if all things decay, each moment is a gift. why not use
 these moments to shape what is to come. breathe
 and observe.
 choose your actions
 wisely. abandon the old and silly systems.
 embrace chaos and "resist!"
 to build your new world. our new world. from bad to good.
 from trash to LIFE. chaos.
